Enemy Pushing North From Canton With Fresh Forces

CHUNGKING, June 5.

The fall of Kengtung an important city in the south-east Shan States is announced in Thursday night's Chinese communique.

"Kengtung fell into Japanese hands on the night of May 26.

On June 1 the Japanese at Kengtung advanced north-east and are now attacking Mong. Severe fighting is proceeding.

The battle raged all day outside Chuhsien (Chekiang Province) where the Chinese defenders held the ground despite continuous Japanese infantry attacks supported by large numbers of aircraft and heavy artillery bombardment.

It is estimated that the Japanese lost 2,000 killed or wounded in the fighting north and south of the city.

The Chinese artillery subjected Japanese troop concentrations to the east of the city to heavy shelling which resulted in many casualties.

The spirit of the Chinese defenders is high.

The Japanese are pushing north from Canton and have received fresh reinforcements.

A Japanese column advancing to the north along the Canton-Hankow Railway has passed Yingchangwa and reached Yuantangyu.

A Japanese column to east of the Railway has reached a point north-east of Tsunghua.

A Japanese column pushing north from Tsengcheng on the east of the river is now held up by the Chinese".

JAP "TOURIST" TROOPS

A feature of the Japanese drive in Chekiang a Chinese spokesman said to-day, is the increased use of "Tourist" troops dressed as Chinese peasants.

FUTILE ENEMY ATTEMPT TO CROSS SALWEEN

A Japanese attempt to cross the Salween river to raid Paoshan in Yunnan has been repulsed, according to information in Chungking. A Japanese flying column attempted to cross the Salween on June 2. The fighting lasted till the following night when the Japanese retired.

According to last night's war communique issued in Chungking, the Japanese offensive against the railway town of Chuhsien in the Chekiang Province has been held off by heavy Chinese counter-offensives. Severe casualties among the Japanese have been reported. The military spokesman stated that the original force of thousand enemy soldiers may have been increased recently by fifty to hundred per cent.

JAPANESE LOSE 2,000 MEN

The Japanese have lost nearly 2,000 men in killed and wounded in three days' fighting for the possession of Chuhsien in Chekiang Province, where they are credited with the desire to obtain possession of air fields whence Allied bombers could reach Japan. The battle continues. Sporadic fighting continues in three other Chinese Provinces namely Kiangsi, Kwantung and Yunnan. In Burma the Chinese are now fighting in the neighbourhood of Mongyang, north of Kengtung.

Japanese air activity on Wednesday included several bombing raids and reconnaissance flights over the Kiangsi Province. The towns of Linchuan, Tungcheng and Fengtu were bombed, but only small damage was caused.

Lull Before Storm In Libya

Br. And Indian Columns Busy: Rommel's Forces Continue Attack On Bir Hakeim

CAIRO, June 5.

From Reuter's special correspondent:—

The third phase of the battle of Libya is about to open. At any moment armoured forces of Gen. Ritchie's Eighth Army and Gen. Rommel's Afrika Corps may be launched at each other in a new clash of steel.

LULL BEFORE STORM

The lull, which set in yesterday as the desert wind whipped up sands into a blinding, chocking screen over the entire battle zone has been used by both sides to consolidate and regroup their tank formations.

BR. AND INDIAN COLUMNS BUSY

The Middle East Communique says: "British and Indian Columns yesterday attacked in the rear an enemy force including tanks which was attacking our positions at Bir Hakeim. Our air forces also were very active in this area destroying dive-bombers and bombing and shooting up enemy concentrations.

SEVEN AXIS PLANES SHOT DOWN

Friday's R. A. F. Middle East Communique states: "In Cyrenaica, our fighter aircraft were again in action over Bir Hakeim region yesterday. Enemy dive-bombers operating against our land forces were intercepted on two occasions. Six "Junker 87's", two "CR 42's" and one "Messerschmitt 109" were shot down and other enemy aircraft probably destroyed. Our aircraft also successfully attacked enemy motor transport vehicles and over one hundred casualties were inflicted. Main landing grounds at Tmimi and Derna and objectives at Catania in Sicily were again attacked.

ENEMY SHIP SUNK

During the same night torpedo-carrying aircraft located and attacked a large enemy merchant vessel escorted by destroyers and aircraft in the Eastern Mediterranean. Hits with torpedoes were obtained. Subsequent air observation showed the ship had sunk and a hospital vessel was on the scene rescuing survivors.

Six of our aircraft are missing from operations but two pilots are safe. It is now known that three pilots reported missing after successful combats over Bir Hakeim on Wednesday, have now returned to their bases."

"BATTLE NOT YET OVER"

Gen. Auchinleck, the British Commander-in-Chief in the Middle East, has wired to Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey, commanding land forces in the south-west Pacific "The battle is not over yet, but all ranks are in great heart." The message was in reply to one from General Blamey saying "Warmest congratulations to yourself, Gen. Ritchie and all ranks of the Eighth Army on their splendid success. The Australian Army has watched the progress of battle with greatest confidence."

Gen. Blamey commanded the Australian forces in the previous Libyan campaigns but returned to Australia with part of the Australian Imperial Force when the Japanese menace neared their homeland.

ROMMEL'S FORCES STILL AT IT

LONDON: Rommel's forces apparently are still attacking hard at Bir Hakeim, it is stated authoritatively in London.

Mention of Indian columns suggests that infantry are now taking part in the battle. Bir Hakeim is the southern end of the chain of defensive positions which the Allies have held for some time and is evidently a reasonably well-constructed strong point.

The Axis lost 150 tanks of which 100 were German by the end of the first day of Gen. Rommel's latest offensive. This is revealed to-day in the Eighth Army's publication "crusader" which describes the hammering the new American 28 ton "General Grant" tanks gave Gen. Rommel's armoured forces.

Clearing Way For Attack On Siberia

Four-Fold Japanese Plan In Pacific: Tokio's Loss In Raid On Midway Island

NEW YORK, June 5.

Naval experts are of the opinion that the Midway and Alaska assaults are a carefully conceived plan which may have any of the following actions in view:

Four-Fold Plan

Firstly a preliminary to an attack on Siberia to destroy the Alaskan bases.

Secondly to clear the way for a powerful attack on Hawaii, Panama or the west coast of America by trying to knock out the aerial forces at Midway and Alaska.

Thirdly an attempt to cut the supply lines into the south-west Pacific after diverting American forces to North Pacific.

Fourthly to try for a knock-out against the bases from which the Japanese homeland and shipping are being attacked.

Jap Battleship And Carrier Bombed

HONOLULU, June 5.

One Japanese battleship and an aircraft carrier were damaged and other warships are believed to be hit in the sixth and heaviest Japanese raid on Midway Island on Thursday, says a communique issued by Admiral Nimitz.

Admiral Nimitz in a 'communique' regarding the Japanese attack on Midway Island says: "At 6-35 a. m. on Thursday the Island was heavily raided by Japanese carrier-based planes.

The attack was repulsed by local defenders in which all the armed services were represented.

A heavy toll of the attacking planes was taken.

The damage to material and installations is reported to be minor.

There are no reports of personnel casualties.

The Japanese carriers were accompanied by battleships and cruisers. One battleship and one carrier were definitely damaged and other vessels are believed to have been hit. Our attacks on the enemy are continuing."

There is no indication whether a major portion of the Japanese fleet was involved but observers agree that the presence of so large a force over 2,000 miles from Yokohama indicates that the Japanese are bent on reducing American power in the Pacific possibly bringing war to the west coast of America.—Reuter

Jap Planes Attack Midway Island

WASHINGTON, June 5

A Navy Department communique states 'Central Pacific Area':—Information has been received that Midway island was attacked by Japanese aircraft at approximately 9 a.m. (local time.).

No further details are yet available. Sea planes were intercepted west of Midway by United States fighters based on Midway itself. Midway is 1,655 miles from Dutch Harbour, 1,149 from Pearl Harbour.

JAPS THROW IN NEW FORCES

The Japanese have to-day flung strong new forces in the battle now raging in Chekiang Province. The outcome is still uncertain after four days furious fighting.

A Japanese detachment is trying to reach Kiangshan, 27 miles south-west of Chuhsien threatening the Chinese rear. Papers found on Japanese dead indicate that Japan's primary aim is the capture of Yushan on the Chekiang-Kiangsi border, 60 miles west of Chuhsien. While the Japanese divisional numbers have been discovered, it is learned the Japanese are using at least three divisions in the attack on Chuhsien.

TWO JAP SUBMARINES DESTROYED

LONDON, June 5.

Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters in Australia announces that Allied aircraft from one Dutch East Indian and two Australian squadrons on reconnaissance off the east coast located three enemy submarines on the surface in widely separated localities. In ensuing attacks two submarines were certainly destroyed and a third probably sunk.

One of the two Japanese submarines officially announced as destroyed by air action off the east coast of Australia was sunk by a young Dutch airman, Flying Officer W. F. A. Winckel. He dropped six bombs squarely on the submarine in an attack from a height of only forty feet.

It was later announced that during the past few days Allied naval forces had destroyed six and possibly seven enemy submarines.

SUNK JAP SUBMARINE SALVAGED

SYDNEY: With an unexploded torpedo filled with 350 pounds of high explosives protruding from its nose, one of the Japanese submarines which attempted to raid Sydney harbour on Sunday was raised by salvage crew to-day until its conning tower was above the surface. Fifteen feet of the submarine's stern, it was revealed, had been blown away by depth charges. An official stated the submarine was not one of the midget two-man type but was fifty to sixty feet long and probably carried a crew of six. It is believed that several members of the crew remained alive some time after their craft had sunk for the auxiliary motor was heard working as late as Tuesday morning.

KOEPANG 'DROME RAIDED

A "communique" from Allied Headquarters says:—

"TIMOR: Our air force attacked Koepang aerodrome encountering heavy anti-aircraft fire but all bombs dropped in the target area destroying anti-aircraft installations and starting fires.

RABAUL: An Allied flight bombed wharves and adjoining areas. Hits were made on Carpenters Wharf and the warehouse area starting numerous fires. Hits with incendiary bombs were scored on a military camp. We had no losses.

TWO ALLIED SHIPS TORPEDOED IN ATLANTIC

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The Navy Department announces that one Norwegian and one Dutch medium-sized merchantman were torpedoed by a submarine in the Atlantic. The survivors of both vessels were shelled and those of the Norwegian ship subjected to gunfire by the submarine. The survivors of both merchantmen landed at an east coast port.

SIXTEEN KILLED IN ELWOOD BLOW-UP

NEW YORK, June 5.

Sixteen people were killed and fifty injured in an explosion in a shell-loading plant at America's largest munitions works. The building concerned was blown to smithereens but no other building or plant was affected, though the sound of the explosion woke up people in their beds in Chicago, fifty miles away. The plant is located in Elwood, Illinios.

Whereas an emergency has arisen which makes it necessary to apply the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1939, to certain persons to whom that Act does not at present apply;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Government of India Act as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, the Governor General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:—

MILL BUYING ON N. Y. COTTON EXCHANGE

C. C. C. To Withhold June Offerings

Bombay, June 5.

On Thursday, the New York cotton futures market was steady. There was commission house and Mill buying encouraged by C. C. C. decision to withhold June offerings and official assurances that war material imported duty free would not affect domestic prices. There was July liquidation and hedging against loan repossessions and large spot sales.

At the opening July was quoted 13 points up at 18.55 and declined to 18.41. At this level there was general buying and July advanced to 18.63. The market finally closed at a rise of 14 points. Spot cotton prices advanced 15 points at 20.10c per lb.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

The New Orleans cotton futures market was steady and closed at a rise of 13 to 14 points. Spot cotton prices gained 14 points at 18.95c. per lb.

PROSPECTIVE SITUATION

Messrs. P. Chrystal and Co. state:—"During the week we have had quite a break in prices in New York. Recently it was announced that the import duty of 7 cents per lb. was to be reduced by half. This duty applied only to long stapled varieties. In order to assist cotton farmers in South America it is now reported that the balance of this import duty will be removed. This move will be welcomed especially if it is an indication that at long last the United States of America is prepared to break down the huge tariff barrier which has done so much in recent years to interfere with International trade. Actually the United states recently have been consuming more cotton than is being produced in that country and additional sources of supply must be found. There is still a considerable carryover of cotton in America from previous crops, but much of this is of qualities which are not in demand. As we said last week we doubt if somewhat lower prices in the United States will have any effect on values in other cotton producing countries for American cotton is still very high in parity with these other growths.

In Bombay we have had the best market for a very long time. There has been an active demand for practically every style and we have to report a further substantial advance in the basis of all stapled varieties. This trend has been visible for some considerable time for the simple reason that good qualities are in short supply and the position is being aggravated by the fact that spinners in India must make up their minds that they will get a smaller supply of foreign cottons during the coming months. A moderate turnover has taken place in Egyptians, Sudans and Uganda but supplies are small and sellers are not keen to part with stocks. Selection of Indian staple yields is becoming more difficult. The spread in price between long and short staples continues to widen and this at last is bringing support to the unwanted Broach cotton, the contract for which has advanced Rs. 10 since a week ago.

Owing to the restrictions on imports of cotton into Bombay the stock of cotton here is rapidly diminishing. We are of opinion that Government did the correct thing when they took action several weeks ago but we suggest that before very long it will be desirable to ease up on the present rigid rules, otherwise many Mills may soon find themselves in difficulties in not being able to secure promptly much needed qualities to keep spindles going.

We continue to get good reports of the campaign to grow more food and less short staple cotton.

We understand the Standards Committee of the East India Cotton Association have now prepared the boxes for the basis (Jerilla) of our new Hedge Contract and these are open for inspection by the trade. We believe it is being found difficult to prepare staple standards of Jerilla cotton of 3/4 inch. It may be advisable to consider making the basis one sixteenth longer for pure Jerilla does not grow so short as 3/4 inch."

BOMBAY COTTON

Bombay, June 5.

Following a rise of 14 points in New York cotton futures, the local market opened today at Rs. 189/8 for Broach J/A delivery and improved to Rs. 189/12 under scattered buying. At this level there was increased realising and prices declined to Rs. 187/8 as a result of unfounded rumours. Later on there was steady support and prices recovered to Rs. 189. The market as pointed out before is a two-sided affair but in view of professional support purchases on declines are advisable.

Under active professional buying prices advanced to Rs. 193/4 and steadied at Rs. 192/8 with some realising. But heavy buying and short covering raised prices to Rs. 197/8. The market was feverish under Bull manipulation. The market closed at 4-30 p.m. as under:—

MR. AMERY AGAIN

Mr. Amery's speech at the Oxford Union was, like his many previous utterances on India, full of half-truths and untruths. They need to be noticed and exposed because he continues to fill the responsible post of Secretary of State for India, though he can deceive none in India. He repeated parrot-like the professed aims of the British in India when he said: "Our aim, publicly declared and sincerely held, is that India should attain as speedily as possible to the same complete and unqualified independence as the dominions". The aim has been publicly declared ever since the days of Macaulay. And its sincerity may be gauged from the fact that its fulfilment is, after a century and more of such professions and training, as elusive as ever. During all these years, says Mr. Amery, we have been given unity, internal peace and reign of law. But almost in the next breath he says we are now too disunited to make a common demand. And Britain's anxiety for Indian unity may be measured by the recent proposals to allow any province and one or more of the 500 Indian States to keep out of the Indian Union. It is unnecessary and unpleasant to speak of the kind of peace that disarming a whole nation has given to India and the terrible price we have paid for it. As regards the reign of law, Indians at least will not forget the reign of repression that is still in evidence in several parts of the country. We may concede in a way Mr. Amery's claim that Britain has inspired in India "a passionate demand for democratic self-government". India is sick of imperialism and alien bureaucracy, and is determined to end them.

Why Not Make A Declaration?

Referring to British war aims Mr. Amery stated: "Once we have defeated the present attempt to build up world empires of aggression, we should aim in conjunction with the great free unions of America, Russia and China at encouraging the development, in Europe and elsewhere of wider groups of nations based on free co-operation on the principle of the Commonwealth.." This is perhaps a reference to the Atlantic Charter, from which India has been studiously excluded. As if remembering the exclusion and attempting to justify it, Mr. Amery trotted out his notorious plea that India has to thank herself for not having freedom even now. He said: "The question still to be answered is, have her leaders enough spirit of tolerance and compromise without which self-government would inevitably destroy her peace within and invite danger from without. That was in effect the question Sir Stafford Cripps went out to ask." If Mr. Amery and Sir Stafford honestly mean that India can have freedom if certain specified parties make a united demand, why is it they have not said so a single once, though repeatedly challenged to say so?

Why Widen The Gulf?

Mr. Amery hoped that free India would maintain the bond of free association with the rest of the Commonwealth. That will depend at least as much on Britain as on India. It is possible for Britain now to help Indian unity and freedom. If she renders that help, it will not fail to be appreciated. If, instead, men like Mr. Amery continue to hinder Indian unity and freedom, hostile reaction is inevitable and there is no knowing how far it may go. Mr. Amery says he is sure that sooner or later India will make a united demand. He is right. The demand will come sooner rather than later. What exactly will be the united demand will depend to no small extend on whether the unity comes because of Britain or in spite of her. The history of the British Empire is varied in its episodes. In which particular episode history will be repeated remains to be seen. Meanwhile, it must be stated with regret that every speech of Mr. Amery on India tends to drive her farther and farther from Britain.

Battle For Midway

The Japanese navy has received another stinging rebuff, this time in an attempted large scale attack on Midway Island, America's advance but isolated post in central Pacific. The action is important in several respects. The attack was apparently planned on a large scale with an ambitious object. It failed to do any significant damage. But that is not all. Admiral Nimitz reports that a heavy toll was taken of enemy aircraft and that, moreever, one Japanese battleship and one aircraft carrier were damaged. The assault, in fact, gave the U.S.A. defenders a useful opportunity for an effective counter-assault of their own. And, says Admiral Nimitz, "Our attacks on the enemy continue." Let us hope these attacks will not only beat the enemy back but also deal him a few more crippling blows.

The Midway attack and its sequel gives rise to some interesting thoughts on Admiral Yamamota's great Japanese Navy. During the initial stages it met with some conspicuous successes at Pearl Harbour and against the Dutch East Indies although it paid a heavy price in the process. Thereafter the run of luck ended. It visited Indian waters in force and its aircraft actually sank two British heavy cruisers and a small aircraft carrier, but having lost over 75 planes over Ceylon it evidently thought that it had had enough. Whatever the reasons, the fleet disappeared to emerge weeks later a few thousand miles scuth east on aggression bent. Led, as it has since transpired, by Admiral Yamamota, it forced upon American and Australian forces the Coral Sea Battle and suffered a big reverse with big losses. It went limping home minus a good many units. Now it has appeared again off Alaska and Midway. The Dutch Harbour attack was not pressed but the other was. So far the battle has gone against the Japanese. But observers believe that they are bent upon reducing American power in the Pacific. In that case they can possibly take Midway but at a price in ship, aircraft and men which may well constitute a profitable deal for America! In case, however, they are forced to retire, an interesting situation will arise. Admiral Yamamota will find himself trapped in his own aggressive intentions. He cannot sit idle. But wherever he turned towards India, Australia or American outpost he would find the defenders much better prepared than ever before. He is encircled —unless he takes Midway after all—in a vast stretch of the Pacific by scenes of his own reverse.

Indian Labour

The American Technical Mission has paid a deserved tribute to the capacity of Indian Labour. It has praised "the good quality and excellent potentialities of Indian Labour." "The Indian", it says, "is skilful with his hands and given satisfactory working conditions and security of employment, is dependable and industrious." Curiously enough, it is Sir Homi Mody who emphasises the limitations of Indian Labour, which, he says, "is neither so educated nor organised as in the United Kingdom." Sir Homi seems anxious to shirk some schemes of expansion that the Mission has recommended. Indian Labour is quite capable of being well organised if the Government and the employers do not hinder their organisation. If they are not sufficiently educated it is not their fault. In any case a sufficient number of them can be given the general and special training that the expansion schemes need. The results will be better and speedier if trainers are brought over from America. If war production is to be speeded up every factor of production has got to be improved both in quality and quantity. This is quite possible for those who are earnest.

Frankly Speaking

Hitler In Finland

Herr Hitler has made a sudden visit to Field Marshal Mannerheim on the occasion of the latter's seventy-fifth birthday. So sudden was the visit that even Baron Mannerheim and President Ryti had no knowledge of the impending honour more than twenty-four hours in advance. What was the object of Herr Hitler's dash—accompanied, moreover, by Field Marshal Keitel—to Finland on Wednesday last? The Fuehrer is not in the habit of honouring his satellites, whether young or old, to wish them many happy returns of the day or decorate them with Gold crosses. It was a unique visit and, therefore, extremely important. There can be two possible interpretations of it. The first is that the results of the Kharkov and Izyum battles have led him to revise his spring plans and transfer the main scene of his blow to the extreme north. Apart from strategical considerations he may quite likely be gravely concerned about the volume of supplies which is now successfuly reaching Russia through Murmansk. The virtual failure of this resolute attacks on Anglo-American convoys has proved the ineffectiveness of his present plans to stop them. But it is vital for him that they should be stopped and Russia blockaded from the north. He is, therefore, contemplating a decisive land attack from Finland either to capture Murmansk or at least to render it unusable by Russia. Hence his visit to Field Marshal Mannerheim.

Another Possibility

There is also another possible alternative. It is well-known that their second war with Russia, inflicted upon them before they had recovered from the crippling effects of the first, plunged the people of Finland into great economic misery which has increased in intensity with the progress of the war. The Finnish economy cracked long ago and it is really a wonder how the country has been able to endure the hardships for such a length of time. It is also well-known that so far as popular sentiment is concerned all enthusiasm about the war ended with the reconquest of territories lost to Russia a year previously. A great many responsible Finnish Ministers have themselves frequently proclaimed their war aims in these terms. If Finland has continued to remain in the war it is mainly, if not exclusively, because of Nazi pressure and the presence of German troops. It is possible that Finnish reluctance to fight on may have revived in such an intensified form as to necessitate Herr Hitler's personal intervention. And it is perhaps not without significance that America decided only the other day to declare war on all Axis satellites, even Bulgaria, but not on Finland.

University Elections

The next election to the Senate of the Bombay university promise to prove interesting, particularly from the registered graduates' constituency, for a variety of reasons. Of all the university constituencies, this remains the only one where the old system of election by post survives. The practice of collecting voting papers duly signed and countersigned continues, therefore, to give an advantage to those who can organise an effective collecting machinery. Voters, even in this enlightened constituency, are not all as alive to their duties as may be expected. Quite a large proportion of them show an indifference, which puts an undesirable premium on the efficient collector, who is not always the most efficient candidate.

Dr. Jivraj Mehta's Candidature

The number of candidates at the next election from this constituency appears to be much smaller than has been the case in recent years, probably because of the huge size of that electorate. The chances, therefore, under the system of single transferable vote, of a really deserving candidate being left out, for lack of adequate collecting machinery, are considerable. Voters must, accordingly, exert themselves to record their suffrage in the proper form and elect candidates who would maintain and uphold the traditions of independence and nationalism common in the university, and the cause of higher education. Dr. Jivraj Mehta is one of such candidates. He has already signalised his independence of outlook and nationalism in policy by sixteen years of service in the Senate and other university bodies. He seeks election from the registered graduate constituency because of his approaching retirement, due to superannuation, from the Deanship of the Municipal Medical College, and consequently from senate of the university to which he had been elected by the Principals of colleges only last year. It is to be hoped the registered graduates will not fail to return him and that the senate will, in consequence, not lose the services of such a tried, efficient, indepen-dent Fellow, while Dr. Jivraj Mehta is still able to render service to the university, and the cause of higher education in the Province.

"Gandhiji Will Come Round To My View"

"C. R." CONFIDENT

MADRAS, June 3.

That a new situation, more difficult than the previous, had been created by our opponent should make us adapt our methods to tackle it and not make us abandon our effort altogether. That the Cripps Negotiations had failed and the situation to-day had been made more difficult than before only made our duty the greater to make a fresh attempt to deal with That was his approach to the problem and the key to his proposal. The negotiations having failed, a Congress-League settlement was the best means of compelling the installing of a National Government in the present circumstances—observed Mr. C. Rajagopalachariar addressing at Gokhale Hall. Mr. T. T. Krishnamachari presided. Mr. Bulusu Sambamurthi opened the conference.

Mr. Rajagopalachariar said: "I am dead certain that if we secure a Congress-League settlement, even if all the members of the War Cabinet send me notice beforehand that they would not give me a National Government, although an eleventh hour settlement be achieved, we can make them give us National Government and everything we want. Even if it did not fructify in a National Government, a Congress-League settlement would be production of mutual trust and understanding; it would be all gain, no loss whatever. A Congress-League Settlement would not become honourable or dishonourable according to the motive which prompted Englishmen in making it a condition precedent for transferring power. It was good and honourable independently of the Britisher's motives in urging it."

A MERE DIFFERENCE

His proposal, Mr. Rajagopalachari proceeded, was connected with the attitude of the Congress and the League and it was necessary these two bodies should come together. He was not going contrary to any decision reached by the Congress. It was only a difference of opinion between him and his colleagues on which he was endeavouring to press his views having regard to the importance of the subject, although his colleagues had bluntly told him they would not change their mind. He felt so strongly that what he said was right that he had full confidence that Mahatma Gandhi would come round to his view. He would not accept from a reasonable man like Gandhiji a denial beforehand; Gandhiji was eminently a man of reason and he insisted on truth being arrived at even contrary to previous opinions.

PROPOSAL CORRECT FOR A SETTLEMENT

The speaker claimed his proposal was politically correct and had a future before it and they must therefore work for it. Mr. Rajagopalachari at the outset, read out the resolution passed by the Muslim League on March 26, 1940 as well as his own resolution at the A. I. C. C. and said that his resolution in terms urged the Congress to concede the principle contained in the League's Lahore Resolution, to ask the League to come and meet the Congress on that basis and to make an effort at getting a settlement for the purpose of coming under one common Government, conduct the Defence of the country and the present affairs under a National Government and after winning the war and maintaining the prospect for Independence and Swaraj, sit down and work for the execution of the proposal, if, after our trying to prevent separation, those who demanded separation insisted on it and if the votes of the people of the area so decided the issue.

SCHEME ANALYSED

Lahore Resolution contained the claim of the League to which it stuck to-day. He was not in love with it but he would ask all to examine it carefully and see that it did not contain many things which many people imagined it did.

The word 'Concession' had been used freely in the controversy and it was said he had conceded Pakistan here and now. That was not a fair way of putting his position. He wanted the Congress to give its word of honour that these people had the right to demand separation, all persuasion failing, after getting the votes of the people of the area in favour of the step.

A FACT AND ABSOLUTE FEELING

It was the right of everyone at that stage to argue persuade, put forward considerations against it and to say India was a live thing and should not be cut. To-day, not only had the proposal petrified into an absolute feeling and was no longer an opinion; it had become a fact, with its home in the minds of a mass of thinking and unthinking literate and illiterate people. Mr. Rajagopalachari said: If matters reverted to the condition in which he once said Pakistan was bad, or if people would secure a state of mind wherein the "fact" resolved itself into an 'opinion' he would revert to the original view that Pakistan was bad. The proposal he had put forward was the recipe which would bring about this change.—A. P.

LOYAL CONGRESSMEN'S DUTY

"Must Do Active Propaganda Against Pakistan", Says Satyamurti

KODAIKANAL, June 4.

Mr S. Satyamurthi, M.L.A., (Central) has issued the following statement to the press:—

I see Sri Rajaji says with characteristic ingenuity that he does not see why Congressmen who support him should give up their places in Congress committees. He refers to the General Secretary's circular and says that, "apart from those holding executive office, it is certainly open to Congressmen to hold my views and propagate them." It all depends upon the meaning of the words 'executive office'. I hold that no member of an Executive Committee of any Congress Committee, whether he is an office-bearer or not, can do anti-Congress propaganda without resigning his membership of the Executive. This applies to all working or executive committees of all Congress Committees of Tamilnad and elsewhere. Next, he says that the Working Committee and the A. I. C. C. have not decided on action re: propaganda contrary to his (Pakistan resolution.' He is wrong. By defeating his resolution by such an overwhelming majority, the Working Committee and the A.I.C.C. undoubtedly expect all loyal Congressmen to do active propaganda against his 'Pakistan resolution.' Does he expect Congress Committees and Congressmen to sit with folded hands while he carries on a raging and tearing campaign for Pakistan?

Again why should not the Congress do active propaganda for Akhand Hindustan, i.e., United India? The first article of the Congress constitution says that the object of the Congress is to attain full independence for India. What does India mean there, except United India? I assert without any fear of contradiction from knowing and unprejudiced people, that the position taken up in the main resolution confirming the Delhi Working Committee resolution on the Cripps' negotiations is not contrary to this.

I see Rajaji tries to quote Mahatmaji against himself. Mahatmaji will answer him best. I only say this. I can quote from scores of speeches of Rajaji almost till the other day, that he has been condemning Pakistan very strongly, and that he has been arguing ably that without control over Defence and without the people realising that India is free, India cannot enthusiastically fight Japan.—A.P.

PATTABHI ON INDORE'S PRONOUNCEMENT

"Indore's pronouncement is as striking as it is unexpected. It has added value, coming as it does so soon after Kashmir's. If a dozen other states make a like statement, they will perpetuate their own Princedoms in the true sense of the word better than by hugging their power pathetically under sufference from Britain." Thus declared Dr. Pattabhi Sitaramayya ex-President of the All-India States Peoples Conference, in an interview on the letter of the Maharaja of Indore to President Roosevelt.

Dr. Pattabhi added: "Travancore and Cochin have the necessary culture to lead. Mysore need not lag behind. Bhopal and Gwalior are enlightened States which may not allow Indore to steal a march over them. The Phulkan States of Nabha and Patiala are not so fortunately placed. Kapurthala stands between the last two groups. Guzerat and Kathiawar States may not be forward but will not be backward. The Southern Maharatta States of Sangli and Aundh would be amongst the first half a dozen and lead the van rather than the rear". Concluding Dr. Pattabhi said: "May Kashmir and Indore's pace and tone be copied by the rest of the States in India. Many more of these underground hot-springs rise to the surface and serve mankind".—United Press.

"Shock" Troops And Air Aces For Defence Of India

LARGEST SINGLE CONVOY REACHES INDIAN PORTS SAFE

NEW DELHI, June 5.

The largest single convoy ever to reach India arrived safely early last month, it is now revealed, bringing equipment and personnel of such immense dimensions as to constitute a notable instalment of what the United Kingdom has pledged to send for the defence of India. It is pointed out that when Sir Stafford Cripps in his farewell broadcast in India early in April declared Britain's determination to send all she could and to send it a quickly as she could, he was speaking with a full knowledge of this convoy. Incidentally, it is thought here that the convoy was probably the largest ever to leave the United Kingdom, but it was in fact so large that no single Indian port was able to handle the unloading, and so, the convoy had to be dispersed between ports so as to get the troops and equipment landed as quickly as possible.

A BRITISH MAN-OF-WAR

As the convoy steamed slowly in line towards one of the ports of disembarkation, thousands of troops thronged the decks of the liners and cheered a small official parts aboard a pilot vessel which went out to sea to greet them. The stream of ships was screened by destroyers and in the middle of convoy was a famous British Man-of-War. This mighty guardian of the seas had kept a watchful eye on its priceless charges day and night throughout the voyage.

In addition, units of the Royal Indian Navy provided escort. Indian warships met the convoy many miles out at sea and assisted in "shepherding" the troops carriers and supply ships to their final destination, while shore-based aircraft of the Indian Air Force circled overhead.

"SHOCK" TROOPS

Troops from every branch of the British army were later disembarked. They included thousands of infantry, artillery, mechanised units and "shock" troops. There were also officers and men of the Indian army returning to the native land after undergoing extensive training in modern tactics in England. Thousands of airmen, accompanied by famous fighter and bomber pilots were also included in the detachments. Among the pilots was A. V. C. who won the coveted decoration in aerial combat against the Germans. Others were the D. F. C. Ribbon which they had been awarded for outstanding feats against the Nazis in the battles of France, Britain and Libya. Other persons included some of the crews of America's famous "Kittyhawks", which it is now revealed, are an important part of India's air defence.

The troops were in fine fettle, and all expressed their eagerness to get to grips with the Japanese. A Colonel of the Free French Forces joined the convoy 'en route' having made a daring escape from French Morocco. Disguised as a native, he made a dash for freedom with several other officers in an old Ford motor car. The party took eighty days to reach the British territory.

A Naval Officer aboard one of the liners was one of a number who had been sent out to India to train bomb disposal units this particular officer had dealt with no fewer than 316 unexploded bombs in 300 days during the Battle of Britain.

One airman, a Flight Lt. from New Zealand who had fought in the Battle of France and the Battle of Britain said he had come out east to take part in the expected Battle for India.

The Gymkhanas

To The Editor of The "Chronicle"

Sir,—In April the Government took over the Parsi and Islam Gymkhanas and the Hindu Gymkhana at a special meeting last month invited the members of these two gymkhanas to be honorary members. Now comes the news that the Hindu Gymkhana has also been taken over.

This gives an excellent opportunity to the Bombay Gymkhana, which enjoys a privileged position geographically and otherwise, to show its friendliness to the sister gymkhanas. I am sure one has only to suggest to the Bombay Gymkhana to open its doors to the members of Islam, Parsi and Hindu Gymkhanas and the thing will be done. Sir Roger Lumley can well take the initiative in this matter. Did he not give us in his last broadcast talk some assurance on behalf of the Europeans? That was a negative proposition. Here is an opportunity for doing something more friendly and constructive to remove in a small way the bitterness that has been caused in the country by the stories of discrimination in the matter of evacuation.—Yours, etc.,

SPORTSMAN.

A Suggestion To Bombay Gymkhana

To the Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—The Government had taken charge of the Parsi, Muslim Gymkhana. Immediately the Hindu Gymkhana accommodated the members of these two gymkhanas in their gymkhana. Now I hear that Hindu Gymkhana is also taken up. I suggest that the European Gymkhana should come forward and show the sporting spirit by accommodating members of these gymkhanas in their gymkhana.—Yours, etc.,

The hot June atmosphere in New Delhi seems to have grown hotter still on Thursday last. This is in consequence of the Government of India, as personified in Sir H. P. Mody, having apparently misunderstood American journalists and American journalists having misunderstood the Government of India.

Further progress in this mutual misunderstanding will be keenly looked forward to.

India Will Emerge Powerful After War

Jawaharlal's Warning To Isolationists

Pundit Jawaharlal Nehru speaking in support of Mr. Tandon's resolution at the meeting of the United Provinces Provincial Congress Committee last week said that he was rather diffident in supporting it. It did not make clear where it was leading them to, and what it would actually require them to do when it came to action. But Mr. Sharma's amendment was not comprehensible to him at all. Its author seemed to him to belong to the class of "resolvers" which is the nickname given to those who love high-sounding words for their own sake. It was a sea of words and his own feeble mind could not grapple with it.

He was asked why they should unnecessarily annoy Germany or Japan. For that matter why should they annoy Britain at all? That way they could sit at home and make themselves comfortable and dispense with the need of jail-going and other sufferings. But the Congress, Nehru declared, had during the last ten years made it its creed to annoy those who were cruel and who oppressed other people. It had refused to think in that cowardly way of hesitating to annoy this power or that. It was their duty to support nations which had fallen victims to the very thing they had been fighting against.

ISOLATIONISTS WARNED

Some people thought that by isolating themselves and becoming indifferent to the fate of other nations, India would be able to save her skin. But he warned them that thus isolated they would be like frogs in a well. Their country would be dwarfed. Sympathy with the progressive forces would enhance India's dignity. In Italy, while ambassadors of all nations had been fawning on him he had refused to see Mussolini because he thought that would lower the dignity of the Congress. For the sake of that dignity again he had refused to see Nazi leaders in Germany.

He was astonished how the Congress foreign policy had adversely affected them. The hearts of its critics trembled with the fear that Germany or Japan would come and beat them up. He had no such fear. He knew that out of this war only four countries China, Russia, America and India were going to emerge the most powerful. Why should he be afraid when he knew that his country was going to be a greater country than Britain or Japan?

France's humiliating slavery and the way it was travelling at the feet of the conqueror filled him with shame. But its collapse had convinced him that its own imperialism was the cause of its defeat.

Pandit Nehru thought the method of resistance and the capture of power suggested by Mr. Sharma was absurd and meaningless. They were asked not to come between the invader and Britain's military arrangements, evaporate at the time the locality is turned into a battlefield but reappear again as the civil administration which would then proceed to boycott military administration of the locality when the invader had occupied it. Did that mean that the coming of the invader would facilitate their occupation and setting up of the civil administration? That was an astounding suggestion, and he did not know whether Mr. Sharma had made it in his waking moments or his dreams.

The whole idea was fantastic and absurd and he was thoroughly sick of the way people were lost in words. He also ridiculed the idea that there were five lakhs of American soldiers in India. He would be surprised if even a tenth part of the number were in the country. The figure, however, was an instance of how in our panic-stricken state we formed our opinions on rumours.

Concluding Nehru warned the committee that the remaining months of 1942 would be critical. Whatever might be the organisational strength of the Congress, its potential strength was very great, because all sections of the public were looking to it for a lead in the critical times ahead. It was for them to do their duty. The time for argument was past. They had to act now. Personally he was so sick of slavery that he was even prepared to take the risk of anarchy.—"National Herald."

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR KOLHAPUR

Kher On Implications Of States Peoples' Conference Resolution

BOMBAY, June 5.

The opinion that the best course for the Kolhapur State authorities would be to withhold publication of the new Constitution which is reported to be ready, until the draft which the Committee appointed by the States Peoples' Conference has been asked to prepare is ready, has been expressed by Mr. B. G. Kher, President of the Kolhapur States' Peoples' Conference in an interview to the "United Press" on the present Kolhapur situation.

Mr. Kher hoped that the administration would perceive the desirability of meeting the wishes of the people in the matter of framing the new Constitution.

Mr. Kher referred to the proceedings of the Conference which was well attended and also described how the first conference had been banned, its workers arrested and assaulted and it had actually to be convened in British territory under the presidentship of Dr. Pattabhi Sitaramayya.

Mr. Kher laid special stress on the two resolutions, one deciding to appoint a committee to draft a constitution for the State based on the principle of responsible Government by a Cabinet removable by the Legislature, fundamental rights of people being declared, and the other expressing satisfaction at the stand taken by the Congress on the Cripps' proposals and resolved that the right to send representatives to any Constituent Assembly on behalf of the State should be with the people of the State and not with the Ruler. The first resolution also declared that no constitution not approved of by the State's Peoples Conference would be acceptable to them.—United Press.

JOIN 'PEOPLE'S WAR' AGAINST FASCISM

Kisan Leader's Exhortation At Workers' Rally

BOMBAY, Friday.

Addressing a workers' rally at the Kamgar Maidan this evening, Swami Shahjanand, the peasant leader, made a bitter attack on all those who did not want to fight the Japanese, except by non-violent means.

The speaker deplored that the fruits of science had been harnessed, not for the enriching of human life, but for its destruction. The reason was that power over life and death and the control of capital and labour were in the hands of a few people. The present war, he said, was fought to remove this anomaly. It was a people's war.

He criticised the attitude of those who wanted to fight the British, but had nothing to say about Japan. This was only the negative aspect. The positive side would have been to define what they wanted to do once the British went out of India and what would be the nature of such Swaraj.

How could the Congress rely on the weapon of non-violent non-co-operation to beat back the Japanese, when it had so miserably failed in the case of even the riots?

Bombs and tanks had to be answered by bombs and tanks. This could be done only by the united resistance of India.

The conquest of India by the Japanese would have world-wide repercussions. The world would be given over to the fascists.

On the other hand, the speaker continued, the defeat of fascism would mean the liberation of the world and its toiling masses. With Fascism would perish Imperialism and its offspring capitalism. Power would come into the hands of the workers and the peasants.

Mr. N. M. Joshi who presided pleaded for the formation of a National Government.

Swami Shahjanand came to Bombay in the afternoon by the Jubbulpore Mail. He was received by representatives of the Girni Kamgar Union and student organisations.

Interesting Judgment Regarding Bohra Marriage

IN THE COURT OF SMALL CAUSES AT BOMBAY

Suit No. 7074 of 1941.

Fazle Hussein M. H. Buxamusa ..... Plaintiff

vs.

Sirdar Syedna Taher Saifuddin ..... Defendant

Coram:— His Honour Judge Nadkarni, 7th May, 1942.

Messrs. Desai and D'Souza for the plaintiff.

Messrs. Davar and Dedanvala for the defendant.

Following are extracts from judgment:

The plaintiff seeks to recover Rs. 200 as refund of the amount, alleged to have been taken as deposit by the defendant on the eve of the marriage of the plaintiff's son Idris, by way of guarantee for the maintenance of the beard by the latter for a year after his marriage, as a condition to the defendant's permitting the nikah of the plaintiff's son. The plaintiff claims back the deposit on the ground that it has become refundable on the fulfilment of the stipulation for which it was said to have been made and in the alternative on the ground that the plaintiff is entitled to it, irrespective of the fulfilment of the condition imposed by the defendant as to the maintenance of the beard by the plaintiff's son, the deposit itself being alleged to have been paid by the plaintiff to avoid any obstruction on the defendant's part in the marriage of his (plaintiff's) son.

The defendant by the written defences exhibits No. 1, No. 1A and No. 1B contended inter alia that this Court had no jurisdiction to try the suit as the subject matter of it was alleged to be of a religious nature, relating to the internal autonomy of the Dawoodi Bohra community of which the defendant was said to be the religious Head.

The facts that could be said to have been fairly established by the evidence on record are these:

After the nikah of his son Idris was settled, when he next approached the defendant in or about September '38 for directing his Amil at Surat to perform the marriage he is said to have demanded a deposit of Rs. 200 from him (plaintiff) by way of guarantee for keeping the beard by the son for one year after his marriage, as a condition for the granting of the permission by him (defendant) for the nikah of the plaintiff's son. The plaintiff paid the amount in hard cash, much against his will, to Isakbhai Saheb, the defendant's Amil to avoid any unpleasantness and thereby obviate any obstacles being placed in the way of the marriage of his son and mar the solemnity of the occasion. On the expiry of a year after the marriage in or about September 1939 when the plaintiff asked for the return of the deposit the defendant's Amil asked him to obtain a letter from the Amil at Hodeida where the plaintiff's son had gone for his business, to the effect that he was keeping the beard. And when such a letter was produced from the Amil of Hodeida by the plaintiff, the defendant's Amil put off the refund on the plea that the letter produced was not quite unqualified and hence not quite satisfactory as the Hodeida Amil was said to have written.

"Bhai Irdis grows a beard but it appears to be a little bit trimmed."

The Amil having asked for another letter the plaintiff obtained accordingly a 2nd letter from the Hodeida Amil who wrote.

"Bhai Irdis Buxamusa has been maintaining a beard since a long time, Hence I have given this letter in writing."

PLAINTIFF'S RIGHT TO CLAIM

The defendant's crediting the deposit to the plaintiff's son on his own book called the Beard Book could not affect the issue or the plaintiff's right to sue for it as the true owner of it. Moreover the plaintiff's right to claim the refund of the deposit was never before challenged or disputed anywhere in the correspondent by the defendant. The defendant on the other hand by asking the plaintiff to satisfy him that his son was keeping the beard as guaranteed, has impliedly recognised the plaintiff's right to claim back the amount on compliance with the terms of the guarantee. It is too late in the day now for him to urge that he had no dealings with the plaintiff or that the plaintiff was not entitled to claim back the refund, being not a party to the writing Ex. No. 2.

The point requiring consideration, therefore, is whether the plaintiff proves that the condition on which the deposit was made has been satisfied by him.

No text from any religious book nor any authority from any of the recognised text books on Mahomedan Law was cited to me in support of the defendant's extreme claim that his permission was necessary or obligatory as a 'sine qua non' for the validity of the marriage of a Dawoodi Bohra under the Mahomedan Law or that the marriage effected by a Dawoodi Bohra without any such permission of the defendant was illegal or invalid in law as urged by the defendant.

Marriage is a thing encouraged by law and hence agreements tending to hinder or impede marriage in general are treated as against public policy.

I would hence on the findings recorded, decree the plaintiff's claim with costs and Rs. 30 professional costs against the defendant.

TWO NEW INDIAN FILMS TODAY

CHHOTUBHAI DESAI TO BE HONOURED

Film publicity men of Bombay are to meet this afternoon to concert measures to do honour to Mr. Chhotubhai Desai, Producer of "Rai Saheb" now running at the Lamington Theatre. For, Mr. Chhotubhai was one of them till he joined the ranks of their "Masters" by founding Janak Pictures.

Motion picture copy writers have reason to be proud of Mr. Chhotubhai Desai, who, indeed, is not the first one from their ranks to try his hand at production, but the first one to do so with success.

For "Rai Saheb" distinctly belongs to that class of good films which are financially successful. With a story noted for its realism, with stars who prove their mettle, with engaging music and competent direction. "Rai Saheb" has shown that its Producer has made for himself a place in our film industry.

"Dil-Lagi" Coming To Super

A practical joke and matrimonial mix-up form the funny subject of 'Dil-Lagi' a hilarious comedy now at Super Cinema. 'Dil-Lagi' is Pragati Chitra's first production and will be released by Supreme Film Distributors. Hansa Wadkar the saintly girl of 'Sakhu' and Kumar play the lead in 'Dil-Lagi.' They are playing such light frivolous roles for the first time in their careers and they are together on the screen also for the first time.

Seventh Week Of "Khan-Daan" At West End

It was about its seventh week at the Krishna Cinema that the Pancholi picture "Khazanchi" started getting full houses. If a graph was made, of the box-office returns of that picture, there would be a steady upward curve and then a straight line.

A similar graph for "Khan-Daan", the second Pancholi production, on the hand, would show a straight line at a few points higher than the apex of the "Khazanchi".

'Vijay' Comes To Swastik

Durga Khote Portrays Ideal Of Indian Womanhood

BY T. V. P.

National Studios will present their new film 'Vijay' to Bombay audiences today at Swastik Talkies. There is nothing extraordinary about this picture. But it unfolds a realistic story in which the character of Jiji played by Durga Khote arrests our attention most. This eminent artist of the Indian Screen appears as a typical Indian woman at her best as a mother, sister and wife in her traditional glory.

It is a story of the sacrifice that a woman, brought up under old-world influences of family loyalty, usually undergoes for the good of all around her as behoves the mother in every woman. This is the central conception of the story. The details that add flesh and blood have been cleverly arranged Durga Khote in her role of Jiji reclaims her spoilt brother and errant husband by her service and sacrifice and vindicates as it were Gandhiji's teaching that your making sacrifices and undergoing suffering for those whom you really love never goes to waste.

As far as the technical side is concerned, photography and sound recording have been remarkably well done. Harish Husn Banu, Sankatha, Bhudo Advani have given good support to Durga Khote. This new vehicle of the National Studios will keep up their reputation in the field of picture production.

Why Not Respond To The Call Of The Air?

BY T. V. P.

Opera House, Swastik, Krishna, Minerva and Lamington will screen from to-day the new films of India production 'Asman Ki Pukar'. It is call of the Air to India's youth

We complained till now that our young men had no openings in the Defence Forces of the country—the Army, the Navy and the Air Force. It is not true to-day. There is scope for quite a number of those who passed or failed at the Matriculation Examination, for instance to join in one capacity or other in any of these aims of Defence.

'Asman Ki Pukar' tells you pictorially what is being done to train youngmen for a career in Air Forte, now cadets are selected and trained. The dull and drab life that so many of our young men have been forced to lead till now can be ended for such of them as choose it by becoming airmen. This Film of India short in Hindustani will surely impress boys and their parents and guardians and lead them to think of an Air career for their wards.

"MASOOM" DEPICTS MUSLIM SOCIAL LIFE

BY T. V. P.

One very welcome feature about Fazli Brothers' 'Masoom' now in its second week at Imperial is that it depicts the domestic life of well-to-do Muslims, with prominence given to their rituals, customs, habits and ways of behaviour. We have this in an appreciable measure in 'Khan-daan' also, but "Masoom" specialises in this as it were.

But for certain outward differences, cultured life in any community and any country is bound to have certain common features The spirit of greeting is the same, whether you express it by a shake-hand, a 'namaskar', a smile, a bow or an embrace. So, people of communities belonging to other than the North India Muslim, will find the soul of gentleness, devotion, piety and virtue is the same in every clime and community.

The love theme is of course there and the entertaining quality of 'Masoom' is in keeping with our present average. Positively it is not sub-standard, Ramola is there and that is saying a good deal in favour of the picture

"Tukaram" in Tamil is the attraction on Sunday morning at 10-30 a.m. at the Aurora, Matunga.

The picture is directed by Phani Mazumdar.

The second film is 'My Village' a story with a national theme starring Chaya Devi and Hansa, being directed by Profulla Roy. The third is 'Akeli' the story of a destitute girl, wrich is very human and touching. This film stars Leela Desai and Pahari Sanyal and is being directed by Sudhir Sen. The 'Muhurt' of this film was performed with great eclat the other day at Andheri, when prominent Film personalities were present.

"Bharat Milap" Heading For "Silver Jubilee"

Prakash Pictures' "Bharat Milap", which is now in its 19th week at the Majestic, has now come to be regarded as a "permanent fixture" in the city's current film fare. Now in its nineteenth week at the Majestic, it is definitely heading for its "Silver Jubilee" week and, from all indications, may well go far beyond the winning post.

PROCTOR LADIES ANNEX FOURTH TROPHY BUT B. B. & C. I. RAILWAY 'A' FAIL

(BY LOOKER-ON)

As was expected, the Proctor Ladies who had already won the three previous tournaments of the season, added the fourth, the Kidledar Cup to their bag with ease. Miss D. Rowland; their best scorer did the hat-trick and carried her team to victory. The chief credit however, goes to Miss P. Thomas, their diminutive right back, who was undoubtedly the most outstanding figure on the field though the smallest in size. But for the splendid defence put up by her and Mrs. Rooke, the Bombay Grey's might have fared much better. Without Mrs. Jauklass in their second line of defence, the Greys were far from impregnable. But with a weak centre-half their defence fell to pieces. In the forward line their brilliant Winger, Miss C. D'Souza was completely bottled up, which accounts for their failure. By sweeping the board the Proctors have created a record which will be hard to beat.

B.B.C.I. 'B's' SUCCESS

Contrary to all expectations the second string of the B.B. and C.I. Railway got the better of their senior team in the final of the Jepson Cup. They had to fight three times to arrive at a decision. The Seniors were too cocksure of the final outcome and that was their undoing. Yusuf their centre-forward, was more or less a passenger—much too prone to dodge and dribble and hang on to the ball—and Kishen was playing with an injured foot. There was however no excuse for their defeat. The Juniors went all out to lower the colours of their rivals and ultimately they succeeded. To Murzello, their inside left, goes the credit for scoring the all-important goal. But high praise is due to G. Page, their pivot, for the splendid manner he helped the offence and defence. As a whole, the second team played remarkably well and their victory was fully merited. Although the "A" team lost the opportunity of adding a fourth feather to their cap the B.B. and C.I. Railway have the satisfaction of monopolising all the trophies of the season.

SANTOSH TROPHY

There is widespread disappointment at the decision of the W.I.F.A. not to compete this year in the Inter-Provincial Tournament for the Santosh Trophy. After they declined to stage it in Bombay, the A.I.F.F. has been trying to find another suitable centre. Bangalore and Lucknow have been suggested. It is very unlikely the majority of the Provinces will agree to participate in view of the prohibitive costs of travelling etc., and the small chance of either of these centres paying anything towards them. If however the tournament is held in Bombay, there is every possibility of a good return from the gate, even though extra stands may not be put up. In fact I consider Bombay as the best paying centre in India to-day. Then why not propose to the A.I.F.F. that the W.I.F.A. is willing to stage the tournament, provided the provincial Associations agree to bear their own expenses, on the understanding that the entire profits of the tournament would be handed over to the Federation for proportionate distribution among them. The tournament may be held on the Zonal basis as last year or at one centre as the Federation may decide. I hope a fresh move will be made in this direction soon.

BOMBAY BEATS ARMY AND NAVY AGAIN

In their return engagement, the selected Bombay II defeated the combined Army and Navy team by the substantial margin of four goals to nil. Bombay had three changes in their previous combination, Rashad and Adams substituting Aziz, Bhimrao and Murthy in the forward line. Couto in goal shone brilliantly having a few really dangerous shots. Adams and Naidu rendered useful service but Rashad was not seen in his best. The four goals scored were all the result of marvellous shots, Thomas being responsible for two of them. The Bombay side were seriously tried in the first half. Only towards the close of it they managed to secure the lead. In the latter part of the game however the services team were thrown off their feet. The pace set by the bare-footed forwards was too much for them. It now seems clear that Bombay is capable of putting up a good fight against any team. An engagement between Indians and Europeans will be very interesting indeed. Why not arrange one in course of this season?

Bullion Market Steady

(From Our Special Correspondent)

BOMBAY, June 5.

MONEY

Easy conditions continued to prevail in the short-term money market throughout the week under. Day-to-day loans were quoted at 1/4 per cent. and three to six months' money at 1 per cent. Owing to the suspension of intermediate Treasury Bills, there were record applications amounting to Rs. 6.89 crores for Government of India Treasury Bills and the yield declined from Rs. 1-3-0 to Rs. 1-1-7 per cent per annum. The amount of weekly tenders is again raised from Rs. 3 crores to Rs. 4 crores from next week.

The weekly statement of the Reserve Bank of India for the period ended 29th May 1942, reveals yet another increase of Rs. 3.57 crores in the active note circulation in India which stands at Rs. 432 crores as compared with Rs. 172 crores before the outbreak of the war. The total note issue has expanded by Rs. 31.56 lacs to Rs. 473 crores as against Rs. 217 crores at the commencement of the war. The Bank's holding of Rupee Coin has gone up by Rs. 34.18 lacs, whilst the ratio of gold coin and bullion plus sterling securities to total liabilities has declined by 0.4 to 62.607 per cent. In the Banking Department, there is an all-round increase in Deposits; Government Deposits have gone up by Rs. 6.97 crores, Bankers' by Rs. 4.48 crores and others by Rs. 19.96 lacs. Balances held abroad reveal a record rise of Rs. 13.05 crores. Government borrowings against Ways & Means have declined by Rs. 26 lacs.

GILT-EDGED

Prices in the local gilt-edged market staged a further rally during the week and the tone remained firm. There was a moderate investment inquiry with sellers holding off, with the result that it was difficult to buy any sizeable parcels of any securities. 3-1/2 per cent. Rupee Paper advanced by half a point to Rs. 91-8, whilst 2-3/4 per cent 1966-65 loan was bid up from Rs. 90-12 to Rs. 95-14, 3 per cent. 1946 bonds from Rs. 100-8 to Rs. 101-4 and Rs. 3 per cent. 1951-54 loan from Rs. 96-10 to Rs. 97-8. 3 per cent. 1963-65 loan was bid up from Rs. 9-12 to Rs. 91-8 and 3-1/2 per cent. 1947-50 loan from Rs. 101-5 to Rs. 102. 4 per cent. 1943 bonds, however, remained static at Rs. 101-14, but 4 per cent. 1960-70 loan was in demand at Rs. 105-12 and 4-1/2 per cent 1955-60 loan at Rs. 110. There were buyers in 5 per cent. 1945-55 (tax free) loan at Rs. 107-12.

EXCHANGE

There was no change in the conditions prevailing in the rupee/sterling exchange market which continued to be steady with very restricted business. For interbank transactions, sellers of spot T.T. on London quoted 1s. 5-63/64d. and buyers were quoting 1s. 6d. Merchant rates fixed by the Exchange Banks' Association were unchanged as under:—
Sellers of T.T. on London (spot and upto six months)... 1s. 5-31/32d.
Buyers of T.T. on London (spot and upto six months)... 1s. 6-1/32d.

GOLD

A steady tone was prevalent in the gold market throughout the week under review and prices were well-maintained although the turnover was rather small. Ready gold fluctuated narrowly between Rs. 48-8-0 and Rs. 48-13-6 throughout the week. June settlement gold was quoted at level rates with spot, but July settlement stood at a discount of 3 annas under spot and June. The price of sovereigns varied between Rs 36-14 and Rs. 37-2. Floating stocks of gold are estimated to be about 100,000 tolas; arrivals from upcountry are said to have averaged at about 5,000 tolas a day: whilst the average daily offtake for trade purposes is put at 6,000 tolas. The highest and lowest rates touched were: Rs. 48-13-6 and Rs. 48-8-0 for spot and June settlement and Rs. 48-10-0 and Rs. 48-5-5 for July settlement.

SILVER

The silver section of the local bullion market was inclined to be a little easier in the week, but the rates hardened as the week advanced. Opening at Rs. 80-12, spot silver of Rs. 999 fineness went down to Rs. 80-5-6 on Monday, but advanced by stages to Rs. 80-12-6 and finally closed at Rs. 80-11-0. June settlement silver was quoted at a discount of Rs 2-12 to Rs. 3 under spot, whilst July settlement, which was quoted half an anna under June until mid-week commanded a premium of two annas at the close. Ready silver of .916 fineness was quoted at a discount of Rs. 1-12 at the opening but towards the close the discount narrowed to Re. 1/- under the settlement rate. In London, there was no change in either the cash or the forward quotation, which stood unchanged at 23-1/2d. throughout. Floating stocks of the metal in the local market are said to be about 4,000 bars. The highest and lowest rates touched were: Rs. 80-12-6 and Rs. 80-5-6 for spot, Rs. 78-0-6 and Rs. 77-7-6 for June settlement and Rs. 77-15-0 and Rs. 77-9-6 for July settlement.

SHARES

The share market ruled firm during the week under review and prices hardened all-round on encouraging war news from Europe and North Africa. There was good investment and speculative buying in evidence, particularly in steels and cotton mills, and a sizable turnover was reported in both these groups. The improvement in prices was also partly due to the decision of the Stock Exchange Authorities to allow restricted forward trading. Under the new order, it is once again possible to buy for forward delivery and to liquidate existing forward purchases but short-selling is still prohibited. The purchases made for forward delivery have, however, to be taken up or liquidated on due date and cannot be carried forward. Towards the close, however, a minor reaction set in as a result of profit-taking, but prices nevertheless closed far above the opening levels.

Tata Deferreds recorded a sharp gain of over 270 points to Rs. 1,690, whereas Ordinaries were marked up from Rs. 278 to Rs. 340, closing lower at Rs. 1,610 and Rs. 317 respectively. Cotton mills also witnessed a busy session. Bombay Dyeings moved up from Rs. 1,130 to Rs. 1,255 and Centuries from Rs. 414 to Rs. 482, whilst Central Indias were bid up from Rs. 335 to Rs. 385 and Colabas from Rs. 173 to Rs. 195. Gokaks likewise found buyers at Rs. 275 and New Greats were in demand at Rs. 285. Kohinoors advanced from Rs. 450 to Rs. 505 and Swadeshis from Rs. 393 to Rs. 460. The closing quotations in all cases, however, were a shade lower than the highest of the week. Hydro-electric and Bank shares also ruled steady to firm with a restricted turnover. Andhra Valleys were placed at Rs. 1,525 and Tata Powers at Rs. 1,530 as against the opening quotations of Rs. 1,590 and Rs. 1,485 respectively (both cash). Bombay Trams were a shade better at Rs. 134, but Tata Hydros remained static at Rs. 166-8 for cash throughout. Amongst Banks, Central Banks moved up steadily from Rs. 44-12 to Rs. 46 and Bank of Indias gained from Rs. 139 to Rs. 143 at the finish. Imperial Bank Fully Paids were quoted at Rs. 1,555, whereas Partly Paids were put at Rs. 385. Reserve Banks, on the other hand, were a shade quieter at Rs. 103-12. In the miscellaneous group of shares, Associated Cements marched up from Rs. 161 to Rs. 168 in sympathy with the rest of the market. Belapurs found buyers at Rs. 445 and Bombay Burmas at Rs. 240. Scindia Steam and New Indias were both steady at Rs. 21-14 and Rs. 50-8 respectively.

Amery Outlines Empire-Building After War

ONCE VICTORY IS WON, WE WILL TRY TO DEVELOP WIDER GROUPS OF NATIONS BASED ON CO-OPERATION

"Once we have defeated the present attempt to build up world empires of aggression, we should aim in conjunction with the great free unions of America, Russia and China at encouraging the development, in Europe and elsewhere, of wider groups of nations based on free co-operation on the principle of the Commonwealth," declared Mr. L. S. Amery while speaking at the Oxford Union last night.

LONDON, June 5.

The British method of commonwealth was compared with the other two types of empire building by the Secretary for India, Mr. Amery, in a speech to the Oxford Union on Thursday night.

"At first sight compared either with the method of empire by domination or with that of federation it may seem that ours is hopelessly weak and incapable of determined action but who can say in the face of experience of the two great wars that it has been a failure"?

Mr. Amery was speaking in special reference to India. "Our aim, publicly declared and sincerely held, is that India should attain as speedily as possible to the same complete and unqualified independence as the dominions", he said adding, "While we also like them maintaining the bond of free association with the rest of the Commonwealth.

We have given India unity, internal peace and reign of law. We have inspired in her a passionate demand for democratic self-Government.

The question still to be answered is, have her leaders enough spirit of tolerance and compromise without which self-Government would inevitably destroy her peace within and invite danger from without.

That was in effect the question Sir Stafford Cripps went out to ask. The immediate answer has no doubt been discouraging but I, at any rate, refuse to believe that she will not sooner or later give the right answer."

Looking ahead Mr. Amery expressed his conviction that the development of the commonwealth method of free co-operation was capable of far-reaching improvement in the future and said: "Once we have defeated the present attempt to build up world empires of aggression, we should aim in conjunction with the great free unions of America, Russia and China at encouraging the development, in Europe and elsewhere, of wider groups of nations based on free co-operation on the principle of the Commonwealth."

Mr. Amery added a warning to those who "FONDLY BELIEVE THAT INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISM WILL HERALD A NEW ERA OF WORLD PEACE." Socialism in opposition was no doubt internationalist and pacifist in its outlook but once Socialism in power "ITS WHOLE TENDENCY WILL BE NATIONALIST AND MAY WELL BECOME EXCLUSIVE OR EVEN AGGRESSIVE."—Reuter.

INDIA MUST BE DEFENDED FOR SAKE OF CHINA

Bajpai Demands Implements For Effective Resistance

CALIFORNIA, June 5.

"India will fight—is fighting," declared the Indian Agent-General, Sir Girja Shankar Bajpai, speaking at the Institute of Technology.

He asserted that the resolution of the All-India Congress Committee on non-violence and non-co-operation had raised "misgiving" regarding India's will to resist.

He declared that India must be held not only for her own sake but for the sake of China "whose resistance always ranks as one of the immortal epics of history."

Sir Girja Shankar Bajpai pointed out that India and China must receive the implements necessary for effective resistance. "Not only each lacks man-power but each is in urgent need of planes. Each looks to the United States for prompt and effective supply of these essential implements of war".—Reuter.

HITLER PRESENTS GRAND CROSS TO MANNERHEIM

BERLIN, June 5.

The official "communique" on Thursday on Hitler's visit to Finland states, "The Fuehrer accompanied by General Field Marshal Keitel to-day visited the Marshal of Finland, Field Marshal Mannerheim, at a spot in Finland behind the front to convey to him the cordial wishes of the German people and the armed forces on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birth-day.

As a sign of the common destiny of Germany and Finland the Fuehrer presented Field Marshal Mannerheim with the Grand Cross of the German Eagle in Gold.

A fairly long conversation took place between the Fuehrer and the Finish President M. Ryti. Field Marshal Mannerheim and General Keitel.

The talk took place in an atmosphere of cordial friendship.

The Fuehrer recalled the historic brotherhood in arms of both the nations which for the second time in history were fighting together against a common enemy".

Hitler left Finland by air at 5-15 p.m.

PROVISION OF AIR RAID SHELTERS

Responsibility Of Landlords And Tenants

Under the Defence of India Rules, the Municipal City Engineer has been authorised by the Government of Bombay to require owners of private premises in the city of Bombay to provide air raid shelters (which term includes 'safety rooms') within such period and in accordance with such requirements as he may specify.

Notices specifying the works to be carried out are being issued by the City Engineer in respect of buildings consisting of one-room and two-room tenements in the first instance and similar notices will be issued in due course in respect of other types of buildings. Notices will be served on the owners or their rent collectors or, in the absence of both, they will be pasted on the premises concerned.

The period for completion of work specified in the notice 15 days from the date of its service. In case a landlord cannot undertake the work immediately due to scarcity of materials, such as bricks, cement and timber, he can apply to the City Engineer for an extension of time.

If a landlord fails to comply with the requisitions made in the notice, the City Engineer is authorised to have the work executed through whatever agency he deems fit, and its cost will be recoverable from the landlord by the Collector of Bombay as if it were an arear of land revenue. Failure to comply with the notice also constitutes an offence which is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

PROTECTION TO LANDLORD

In certain types of buildings the landlord may have to construct a 'safety room' in a room or rooms already in the occupation of his tenants. In such cases as he will be acting in obedience to an order validly issued by the City Engineer, the landlord will be authorised to bring about the required structural alterations and the tenants cannot legally object to or obstruct the execution of the work. Tenants can vacate the premises if they like. The landlord is also protected under the Defence of India Act from any civil claim on the part of the tenant in regard to the disturbance, loss of air and light, etc.

The landlord has also a right to evict the tenant in order to comply with the order if the latter prevents him from complying with it and the tenant will have no claim for damages on account of such eviction.

In the case of buildings which are unsound and therefore unsuitable for habitation during an air raid, the provision of 'safety room' will not be advisable. Landlords and tenants will be notified which buildings are unsafe for occupation during an air raid, and if, after the service of the notice, they continue the occupation of such buildings it will be entirely on their own risk.

SHANKERRAO DEO'S APPEAL TO WORKERS TO STAND BY CONGRESS

Appealing to a gathering of workers to stand by the Congress and support its policy, Mr. Shankerrao Deo, a member of the Congress Working Committee, explained the attitude of the Congress and Gandhiji "vis-a-vis" the war at a meeting of workers at the corner of Shri Ram Mills, off Fergusson Road, on Friday evening.

He stated that Gandhiji was not an enemy of Britain. The Congress also did not believe in platitudinous statements of Japanese premier. Congress wanted freedom for this country.

Without freedom and transfer of power from the hands of the British to those of Indians, the present war could not be turned into a peoples' war. And if power were transferred and the present war was converted into a people's war, then they could fight the Japanese aggression.

There might be a desire on the part of the workers to identify themselves with the people of Russia and China in this war. But, he asked, even if a lakh of people were recruited and trained to be sent to Russia, would they be certain that they would be sent to that country?

Anyway the time was critical and the brave and those who could offer the utmost sacrifice were needed by the country.

Those workers of Bombay who had joined the general exodus in the city had returned from their villages preferring to take risks in Bombay rather than to suffer in the villages. It was true that they had spent perhaps all their bonus as railway fare to and fro.

Mr. Ashok Mehta presided.

Mr. Jamnadas Mehta told the very story of the Indian who was asked whether he knew Bonar Law. The Indian replied "I know Hindu Law well, I am studying Mohamedan Law, but this is the first time I've heard of Bonar Law".

Good crazy story!

May we have that removed, please?
